

Kirsten Lin, M.D.

Profile

---

Board-certified family physician who is challenging the status quo of a broken healthcare system. Owner and operator of a direct primary care (DPC) practice. Co-founder of a DPC-specific managed services organization. Instructor with Little Medical School, an organization that seeks to inspire children through health-related interactive programming.

Professional experience

---

2017- Present: Lead Physician

Direct Care Physicians of Pittsburgh: Kirsten Lin, M.D., Pittsburgh, PA

- Preventive health focused medical practice
- Evaluation and management of disease states
- Administrative duties of running a medical practice

2016- 2017: Physician

Wexford Medical Practice, Cranberry Twp., PA

2009- 2016: Physician

Family Practice Associates, Sewickley, PA

Residency

---

2006-2009

UPMC St. Margaret Hospital

Education

---

2002-2006

University of Pittsburgh School of Medicine

2002-2006

The Pennsylvania State University

- B.S. in Biochemistry & Molecular Biology
- Minor in Human Development and Family Studies

Awards

---

- Pittsburgh Magazine Top Doctors, multi year
- The Incline Magazine Who's Next in Health & Fitness, 2019
- Pittsburgh Magazine/PUMP 40 Under 40, 2018
- Best Resident Teacher Award, 2009
- University of Pittsburgh School of Medicine Summer Research Certificate of Merit, 2003
- Schreyer Honors College academic scholarship
- Bunton-Waller scholarship, 1998-2002

Speaking engagements (selected)

---

- Organizer and Master of Ceremonies, Primary Care Skills & Procedures Review, Pittsburgh, PA, Sept. 2022
- Podcast guest, My DPC Story, Episode 79, May 2022
- Invited panelist, Healthcare Executive Leadership Forum, Pittsburgh Business Group on Health, May 2019
- KDKA Radio Broadcasts, Jan and Mar 2018
- Invited speaker, Direct Primary Care 101, Greater Pittsburgh Business and Professional Women's Club, Mar 2018

News articles (selected)

---

- "Direct care physician organization aims to be a new option for patients and providers." Pittsburgh Business Times. Paul J. Gough / February 21, 2022
- "Group seeks to raise direct primary care awareness in Pittsburgh." Pittsburgh Business Times. Paul J. Gough / June 7, 2021
- "Healthcare not health insurance." The Cooperator. Kirsten D. Lin, M.D. / December 31, 2017
- "Low cost, more personal direct care clinic to open in Hampton." Pittsburgh Post Gazette. Kris B. Mamula / August 4, 2017